

Working the field, we often see firsthand needy families in the communities we serve that have been struggling with recent tragedies or hardships that weigh them down. Oftentimes, it's the simplest of things that can lift the spirits and help these families get through tough times. Many times, officers take it upon themselves, without any media attention or recognition, to help these families in times of need. It's what we do; help those less fortunate. We truly care about the people in our communities.

I am happy to announce starting this year, the League would like to harness all of your efforts into one great collaboration throughout the Department: Operation Blue Christmas.

Emulating a successful program from the New York's Sergeants' Benevolent Association (SBA), the League is looking to really help underprivileged families, highlight the efforts of our officers and drown out all the negative and inaccurate accusations made against us by going straight into the communities in need.

Operation Blue Christmas is easy. Through donations from members of the League, along with the public and private sectors, we will share our holiday spirit with several families in need from all LAPD bureaus. Just drop off a new, unwrapped toy ($10 - $20 value) at the League office now and help us fill our box.

Donations can also be mailed to:

The Los Angeles Police Protective League is launching Operation Blue Christmas for the 2017 holiday season!

The Los Angeles Police Protective League wants to partner with you and the Department to initiate a new program called "Blue Christmas" that would emulate what the New York Sergeants' Benevolent Association began doing in 2012. Through donations from members of the League, along with the public and private sectors, we will share our holiday spirit with several families in need from all LAPD bureaus. Please consider purchasing a $10-$20 gift and placing it in a donation drop box or making a monetary donation to this worthy cause. There will be a drop box for toys at each location listed below.
